

BODY & KNOWING

UNIVERSITY

SYMPOSIUM

Fall 2008: Political Bodies/The Body Politic

The 1969 Morrill Hall Takeover: Reflections on Black Bodies in Resistance

This roundtable discussion will be one of several events leading up to the fortieth anniversary of the peaceful protest efforts that forced the University to establish a Black Studies unit on campus. The panelists will examine several competing narratives about the events surrounding the January 15, 1969 occupation of Morrill Hall. Organized by Walt Jacobs, African American & African Studies.

Panelists from African American & African Studies: Rose Brewer, Keith Mayes, Yuichiro Onishi, and John Wright; Alisha Volante, History.

Wednesday, November 12, 4:00 p.m.

125 Nolte Library, 315 Pillsbury Drive S.E.

<http://onestop.umn.edu/Maps/NCCE/NCCE-map.html>

Free and open to the public refreshments will be served