

Iraq War 10 Years Later: Journalists' First-Hand Reports

Tuesday, February 26, 2013

5:30 - 7:30pm

Murphy Hall 130, University of Minnesota
206 Church Street SE, Minneapolis

Operation Iraqi Freedom began on March 19, 2003. Coming on the heels of Operation Enduring Freedom in Afghanistan, it inserted the United States deeply into Middle East affairs.

As we approach the 10th anniversary of this war, join us as we discuss the media coverage and the ripple effect this coverage has had on the Middle East and hear from those who covered the conflict first hand.

Speaker:

Reese Erlich

Freelance Journalist;
Author of "Target Iraq: What
the News Media Didn't Tell
You" and "Conversations with Terrorists: Middle East
Leaders on Politics, Violence and Empire"

Moderator:

Bill Beeman

Chair and Professor
Department of Anthropology
University of Minnesota

Panelists:

Paul McEnroe

Investigative Reporter
Star Tribune

Jeff Severns Guntzel

Senior Reporter
Public Insight Network
American Public Media

Register Online at: <http://iraq10years.eventbrite.com/>

Sponsored by:

MINNESOTA JOURNALISM CENTER
SCHOOL OF JOURNALISM
& MASS COMMUNICATION

The Department of
ANTHROPOLOGY