

BETRAYAL OF THE HUMANITIES

The University During the Third Reich

The symposium will explore the mutation of academic ideals under National Socialism, when the German university system promoted Nazi ideology and helped the state eliminate its diverse community. Thirteen scholars, from across the U.S. and abroad, will examine core academic disciplines, including anthropology, philosophy, classics, Assyriology, theology, law, and music.

SYMPOSIUM

Sunday, April 15, 9 a.m.- 5 p.m.
Monday, April 16, 9 a.m.-12 p.m.
Mondale Hall

To register and for further information, please visit the Betrayal of the Humanities website at <http://z.umn.edu/both>.

Betrayal of the Humanities is co-organized by:
Bernard Levinson, Berman Family Chair in Jewish Studies and Hebrew Bible and Bruno Chaouat, Director, Center for Holocaust & Genocide Studies.

Made possible by a grant from: Imagine Fund Special Events Programs, The Bernard and Fern Badzin Lecture Series Fund, Wexler Special Events Fund for Holocaust & Genocide Studies, Berman Family Chair in Jewish Studies & Hebrew Bible, International Travel Grant from the Global Programs & Strategy Alliance, Checkpoint Charlie Stiftung.

Additional funding and support provided by: Institute for Advanced Study, Center for Austrian Studies, Center for Jewish Studies, Center for German & European Studies, Department of History, Institute for International Legal & Security Studies, Department of Classical & Near Eastern Studies, Department of French & Italian, Department of Political Science, Religious Studies, Department of Art History, Department of Anthropology, Department of German, Scandinavian & Dutch, Department of Philosophy, Legal History Workshop, Human Rights Center, Jonathan Paradise Hebrew Language Fund, Humphrey School of Public Affairs, Law School, Institute for Law and Rationality.