

6th Annual Minnesota Writing Project Fall Workshop

A fall gathering to share lessons and resources around
Minnesota American Indian writers

Saturday, September 29, 2012
8:30am-3:30pm

Keynote Session

Dr. Linda Grover

American Indian Studies, University of Minnesota Duluth
Author of The Dance Boots

Breakout sessions for Elementary, Middle, and High School by Minnesota Writing Project teachers who are implementing the standards related to Minnesota American Indian writers and topics Panel discussion with teachers from the Duluth area on using Dr. Linda Grover's writing in their classrooms. They will also share ideas from summer institutes on Native American authors.

Birchbark Books, Minneapolis, will share ideas and links to Minnesota Indian related standards. Books will be available for purchase. The Minnesota Humanities Center will showcase their events and resources, and the day will include plenty of time to write and share with other teachers!

Charon Tierney, Minnesota Department of Education (MDE) Language Arts Specialist will provide a brief overview of the standards and field questions.
